SOLEHOPE

Sole Hope Sunday has arrived. After weeks of collecting denim for our project, and raising $ through a youth led car wash, the day for the Shoe Cutting Party is here. Following today’s worship, we will head into Laburnum Commons and under the leadership of David cut out denim and other items for the shoes. Kayla has some Ugandan music to share with us. There will be special activities for young children, led by Jennifer Smithey. Each “shoe kit” will be bagged up, labeled, and readied to send to Uganda where they will be made into little shoes for toddlers.

Then, lunch will be served. Tracey Sigmon was here several days this week cooking up a flavorful meal of Ugandan beans and rice, along with beef & greens and a special dessert treat.

Thank you to Tracey and everyone else who was involved with making this event happen!

Men’s Group

The NEW NHPC Men’s Group will meet on Tuesday evening, October 11 at 6 p.m. at the church. Plans right now are to meet every other Tuesday in the evening for study and prayer and then dismiss to dinner at Marty’s for $6 Burger Night. All men are welcome, and we will discuss what we would like to study at the first meeting, Looking forward to seeing you there!!!

New Hanover is forming a Grief Group. We will start on Tuesday, October 4th, and will be led by licensed counselors, Terry Diebold and Faith Harmon. If you are interested, contact either Terry (540-455-4186) or Faith (804-314-8860).
